

D Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Use the first, second or third conditional.

- If the film hadn't been (not be) so boring, we wouldn't have left.
- They will miss their connection if the flight doesn't leave (not leave) on time.
- It would be great if people didn't pollute (not pollute) the environment.
- If the band gave (give) a concert here, all my friends would go to it.
- Would you have cooked (cook) such a big meal if we hadn't had so many guests?
- If you go (go) to London, you should visit Madame Tussaud's Wax Museum.
- You won't get tickets unless you get (get) to the stadium early.
- If the police hadn't caught him, he would have escaped (escape) with the money.

Error Correction

E Correct the errors.

- I don't believe you unless you prove it. X
I won't believe you unless you prove it.
- If I was you, I'd exercise more. X
If I were you, I'd exercise more.
- We would have called if we knew about your accident. X
We would have called if we had known about your accident.
- If it will rain, we will cancel tomorrow's party. X
If it rains, we will cancel tomorrow's party.
- He succeeded if he tried harder, but he's too lazy. X
He would succeed if he tried harder, but he's too lazy.

F Complete the sentences to make them true for you.

- If I had more money, Answers will vary. Accept all logical and
- If I found a dog on the street, grammatically correct answers
- Unless it rains at the weekend,
- I wouldn't have known how to speak English if

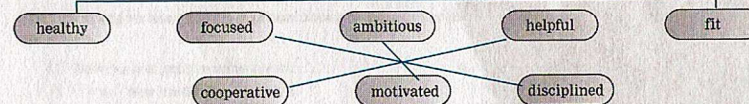

Grammar Review 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Rewrite the sentences using the words in brackets.

- These jeans are very expensive. (cost)
These jeans cost a lot.
- I left the party at 10 o'clock. Dave arrived at 11 o'clock. (by the time)
By the time Dave arrived at the party, I had left. / I had already left the party by the time Dave arrived.
- I don't think he's honest. (lie)
I think he lies. / I think he is telling a lie.
- The last time I saw him was two months ago. (for)
I haven't seen him for two months.
- My advice to you is to apologise to them. (if)
If I were you, I'd apologize to them.

Vocabulary: DESCRIBING PERSONAL QUALITIES

A Match pairs of words that are close in meaning.

B Choose the correct answers.

- You can trust her to do what she promises, because she is reliable / strong.
- At the age of five, it was already clear Paula was a very experienced / talented musician.
- Everyone likes Sue because she's competitive / fun to be with.
- Children must be respectful / reliable to parents and teachers.

WORDPOWER

Words with More than One Meaning

C Write two meanings in your language for each of the following words.

- | | | |
|---------|---------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. key | llave | tecla |
| 2. wave | ola | onda |
| 3. nail | uña | alawa |
| 4. ring | anillo | llamar
(por teléfono) |

Topic Vocabulary Review 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

1 Complete the passage with the words below.

exciting / noisy / performing / jealous / community / instruments / leading / experienced / romance / club

Jenny loves doing 1. community work, and she is very 2. experienced at her job. Lots of teenagers in the area go to the 3. club, where she works in the evenings. Jenny once studied the 4. performing arts, so she sometimes puts on plays with the young people. She gives the 5. leading roles to different people every time so that no one will feel 6. jealous. She also does different kinds of plays. Sometimes it's love and 7. romance, and other times something 8. exciting with lots of action. Jenny also puts on concerts with teenagers who play musical 9. instruments. When there are rehearsals going on, the club gets very 10. noisy, but everyone has a good time.

2 Complete the sentences. Arrange the letters in the squares to form the hidden word.

- Small children are frightened by I o u d noises.
- If you don't eat enough, you I o s e weight.
- At school and college, you get an e d u c a t i o n.
- People do sport to keep h e a l t h y.
- A pizza bar is a f a s t food place.
- Things that happen in a film are called the p l o t.
- John was u p s e t when his girlfriend left him.

The hidden word is: helpful